

course, being conveyed from Charles H. Houck and Virginia E. Houck, I did not know from whom he bought it.

I hand you certified copy of deed, marked Exhibit No. 4, purporting to convey a parcel of land from William H. Burrier to the State Roads Commission. Could you identify that?

No, I cannot identify this because I don't know anything about it.

Do you know whether the State Roads Commission did take part of his land for the hill?

I know they widened it out there.

Do you know whether they used any of his land to straighten the road out?

I know the road was widened out at his land.

I hand you deed marked Exhibit No. 5 purporting to convey to William H. Burrier 255 3/4 acres in Charles County. Could you identify that as part of the property belonging to William H. Burrier?

I know from personal account that he had property in Charles County but I cannot, I do not know which it is. He did own at one time two farms, but I was with him on only one of them a number of years ago and understood he sold one but still owned one down there but as far as recognizing the deed, I could not.

Do you know the acreage of the one he owned at the time of his death?

No.

Mr. Monath, is this real estate of which Mr. Burrier died seized and possessed, capable of being divided among the different heirs?

I certainly would not think it could be to any advantage.

Would you say it would be to the best interest and advantage that same be sold and the proceeds divided?

That would be my idea about it.

What would you say would be the value of the farm of 148 acres, which was marked as Exhibit No. 1?

That is the farm on which Ed. Lochner lives. I would say $10,000.00 for it. I do not claim to be an expert but if I were in
